

Poets in Conversation: A Zoom Poetry Series Hosted by Phyllis Klein. Join us for an hour and a half of poetry and conversation as we connect and support each other through poetry, reaching a wide-ranging audience.

Twenty-Sixth Installment: Saturday, May 20th, 2023, at 4PM Pacific Time, 7PM Eastern Time. With Greg Santos and Bunkong (BK) Tuon.

To RSVP and get the Zoom link, contact Greg, BK, or Phyllis, at poetry@phyllispoetry.com

Greg Santos is a poet, editor, and educator. He is the author of Ghost Face (DC Books, 2020) and several other poetry collections. He is an adoptee of Cambodian, Portuguese and Spanish heritage. He is the Editor in Chief of the Quebec Writers' Federation's online literary magazine, carte blanche. He lives in Montreal with his family. Visit his author's page at gregsantos.me. Santos homeschools his two children alongside his wife and they live with an adorable 2 and a half year old winter white dwarf hamster named Sprinkle. They will soon be adding a rescued dwarf hamster to their family.

Bunkong Tuon is a Cambodian-American writer and poet. He is the author of three full-length poetry collections. His writings have appeared in Copper Nickel, Massachusetts Review, New York Quarterly, The American Journal of Poetry, Diode Poetry Journal, among others. Tuon is poetry editor of Cultural Daily. He teaches at Union College, in Schenectady, NY. More importantly, he is the proud father of two beautiful and smart kids and the husband of a kind, compassionate, lovely wife.

Next Installment: Welcome Renée Schell and Erin Redfern, June 24th, 2023 at 4PM Pacific Time. Save the date! We'll be breaking for the summer after this reading. Thanks for your support.
